Eco thought for June

"Those who dwell among the beauties and mysteries of the earth are never alone or weary of life."

- Rachel Carson

Today there are two reasons to make our worship a joyful celebration. Roisin will receive her first communion. A warm welcome to her and her family.
And Bill will receive the fellowship of the Fraternity of Saint Cecilia. Many, many, congratulations.

Collect

God our King,
as we offer the poverty of our praise,
bathe us in heavenly light and warmth,
so that joined with the angels' rich harmony
and timeless melody,
we may worship you in sincerity and truth.
Amen.

Post Communion

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord.

Old Testament Reading

Psalm 150

Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

New Testament Reading

The Second Reading consists of excerpts from the writings of Saints Paul and James, and the unknown author of the letter to the Hebrews, addressing the early churches about music.

From the letter to the Romans - "Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written: 'For this reason I will confess to You among the Gentiles, and sing to Your name.'"

From the first letter to the Corinthians "What is the conclusion then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will also pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will also sing with the understanding."

From the letter to the Ephesians "And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord..." (

From the letter to the Colossians “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

From the letter to the Hebrews “For both He who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of one, for which reason he is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying: ‘I will declare Your name to My brethren; in the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You.’”

From the letter of St. James “Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing psalms.”

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Luke 1:46-55

When the Gospel is announced the reader says

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

And Mary said:

“My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant.

From now on all generations will call me blessed, for the Mighty One has done great things for me— holy is his name.

His mercy extends to those who fear him,
from generation to generation.

He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;

he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.

He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.

He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful to Abraham and his descendants forever, just as he promised our ancestors.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, O Christ.

We do not take a collection during the service at St. Anne's as we have a Parish Giving scheme. However if you wish to make a contribution you will find a plate at the back of church and a card reader if you prefer to donate in that way. If you would like to join the Parish Giving scheme please speak to Lindsey Archer or the church wardens. Also, scanning this QR code will provide information about the scheme and how you can make contributions if you wish.

Ukraine and Eat or Heat - We are still collecting for both at the back of the church—children, toddler's and baby items are still very much needed as the war takes its toll on the people of Ukraine. As are long lasting food products and hygiene products for Eat or Heat.

A huge debt of gratitude from us all to Heather as she steps down from the post of Church Warden. Heather has been tireless in her work as Warden and always executed the same with calm, cheerful efficiency. And on behalf of Mick, Julie and myself a huge thank you both the work, organisation and support you have given us over the years. Thank you.

Congratulations to Marcia and Anthony our returning and new Wardens. Thank you for your generosity and commitment to building the kingdom in Chingford Hatch.

"Table Top Sale - Saturday 5th July 10-11.30am If you would like a table on 5th July, or can help on a St Anne's table or with refreshments, please sign the list at the back of church. We shall be raising money for the Sickle Cell Society, which supports and represents people affected by a sickle cell disorder."

Last call for Rotas – The August to October rota will be prepared next week. Please let Mick have any non-available dates if you have not yet done so.
