SCRAMBLERS

Please we need more volunteers to help with the Scramblers. If you would like to help out and want to be on the Rota please have a word with Val. Thank you.

BOTTLES

Owing to the extraordinary success of Last year's Sloe Gin (especially in the vicarage) we are appealing for bottles to do some more. Ideally the bottles should be the size of half wine bottles with a sealable top.

ROTA

Could you please let Mick know your non-availability dates for May to July if you are on the Rota

SIGN OF PEACE

Prayer of forgiveness

Lord bring new life where we are worn and tired, bring new love where we have been hard-hearted. Bring forgiveness where we feel hurt, and where we have wounded; Bring the joy and freedom of your Holy Spirit where we are prisoners of ourselves.

To all and to each, on your community and friends, where regret is real, God pronounces his pardon and grants us the right to begin again.

Thanks be to God Amen.

And now, following Jesus' example and command we take this bread and wine, the ordinary things of the world which Christ will make special. And as he prayed before sharing, let us do so too.

Intercessory prayers

IN the silence of our hearts, let us pray for those who need to be remembered: For those who have made the headlines today because of what they have done or said:

for those who care for us and for those we care for, today we remember those who gave us life, for our mothers.

For those who are sick or in trouble:

For those whom the words 'Peace and Justice' bring to mind:

For those for whom we have a special concern .

For those who have died and those we remember with love and affection.

Finally we pray for ourselves.

And now, as Jesus taught us so we pray:

Eternal Spirit, Earth-Maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver
Source of all that is and all that shall be, Father and Mother of us all,

Loving God who is in heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!

The way of your justice be followed by people of the world!

Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.

From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever.

May it be so. Amen. (From the New Zealand Prayer Book)

Lord Jesus Christ, present with us now , for all that you have done and all that you have promised, what have we to offer?

Our hands are empty, Our hearts are sometimes full of wrong things, We are not fit to gather up the crumbs from under your table.

But with you is mercy, and the power to change us. So we do here what you did in an upstairs room. Send down your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine that they may become for us your body, healing, forgiving and making us whole, and that we may become, for you, your body, living and caring in the world until your kingdom comes. Amen.

Among friends, gathered round a table, Jesus took bread, broke it and said,

This is my body. It is broken, for you.

And later he took the cup of wine and said

This is my blood, the new relationship with God made possible because of my death. Take this, all of you

O Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world. Have mercy on us.

O Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world. Have mercy on us.

O lamb of God your take away the sin of the world. Grant us your Peace.

These are the gifts of God for the people of God; our Lord is coming to us in bread and wine.

COMMUNION

Concluding prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you have put your life in our hands, now we put our lives in yours. Take us, remake us and send us out. Inspire us to be builders of your commonwealth on earth, so that the light of your love may shine in every dark place— and peace and justice shall reign in every human heart. Amen.
